

On Nov 7 2022 @ 7pm Join MLB umpires Jim Reynolds and Stu Scheurwater as they talk shop and share insider stories about life as a Major League Umpire. Zoom details will be emailed the day before the event. Submit your questions ahead of time to jennifer.jopling@umps-care.com.

This exclusive event is for the British Columbia Baseball Umpires Association and is put on by UMPS CARE Charities, a non-profit founded through the compassion of Major League Baseball umpires in 2006. UMPS CARE supports children and families in need across the country through:

- BLUE Crew Ticket Program - Major and Minor League umpires host foster youth, young inner-city baseball players, military families and children in mentoring programs to a VIP experience at their local ballpark giving them a day to remember
- BLUE for Kids Hospital Program - Major League Umpire take Build-A-Bear Workshop experience to the bedside of critically ill children bringing smiles and furry friends to kids who need it most in over 15 Major League markets nationwide and in Canada
- All-Star College Scholarship Program - a scholarship for youth adopted late in life to achieve their dreams of going to college.
- Official Leadership Program - training for high school youth from under-resourced communities to become paid umpires and to be leaders on and off the field.

For event tickets go to <https://secure.givelively.org/event/umps-care-charities-inc/umps-care-bcbua>

